IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

MOTION

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Pro se

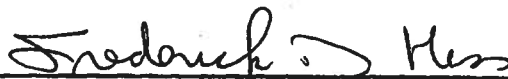

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Jon D. Staples
Assistant District Counsel

APPLICATION: Protection under the Convention Against Torture

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. This case is presently before us pursuant to the (b) (6) decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The court found that the Board did not properly apply the Convention Against Torture (CAT) regulations when it sustained the Department of Homeland Security's appeal from the Immigration Judge's grant of the respondent's request for protection under the CAT. It remanded the case for the Board to properly apply the regulations, as interpreted by the court. The Board was also instructed to first determine if the Revolutionary United Front in Sierra Leone constitutes a "public official" under the CAT. Finally, the court, noting the "woefully outdated" record regarding country conditions, remanded for consideration of current conditions in Sierra Leone. The last hearing in this case was held almost 5 years ago.

We recognize that the court remanded this case for the Board to make certain findings in light of its decision. However, we also note that the court emphasized the stale record in the case, and indicated its view that conditions in Sierra Leone may have improved for the respondent. Under these circumstances, we find that both parties should be given a full opportunity to present any evidence they may have regarding current country conditions in Sierra Leone. A remand is therefore necessary. Accordingly, the decisions of the Board dated April 5, 2002, December 20, 2002, and March 3, 2003, are vacated and the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings consistent with this decision and the decision of the court.
